

Right to ask questions

The shareholders can ask written questions to the board of directors before the ordinary general meeting of shareholders of April 20th, 2016, by having such questions delivered to the company by written notification by no later than April 14th, 2016 at 17h00 (Belgian time)

Timely asked written questions will be answered at the ordinary general meeting of April 20th, 2016, if:

- the legal quorum is reached;
- the question relates to an item on the agenda of the ordinary meeting;
- the communication of data or facts is not detrimental to the business interests of the company or to the confidentiality undertakings the company or its directors are bound;
- the shareholder that has asked a question is registered as a shareholder on the record date of April 6th, 2016 at 24h00 (Belgian time) and has notified the company no later than April 14th, 2016 that it wishes to attend the ordinary general meeting.

Orally asked questions during the ordinary general meeting will be answered under the same conditions.

Written questions to the Company need to be addressed to:
